

. General Terms

- Gift certificates are valid exclusively for pottery classes offered by the Cowee Pottery School
- Certificates cannot be redeemed for cash, merchandise, or any other services outside of scheduled classes.
- Each certificate is issued in a specific amount and can be applied towards class tuition. If the class fee exceeds the certificate amount, the recipient is responsible for the difference.
- Gift certificates are non-refundable and non-transferable.

2. Redemption & Expiry

- To redeem a gift certificate, the recipient must contact the pottery school and provide the certificate code at the time of registration.
- Gift certificates must be used within 12 months from the date of purchase. Expired certificates will not be honored.

3. Class Enrollment & Availability

- Gift certificates do not guarantee a spot in any specific class. Registration is subject to class availability.
- Advance registration is required, and classes may fill up quickly. It is recommended to redeem the certificate as early as possible.
- If a class is canceled by the pottery school, the recipient may use the certificate for a future class within the validity period.

4. Modifications & Restrictions

- The pottery school reserves the right to modify class schedules, fees, and policies without prior notice.

For any questions or assistance with redeeming a gift certificate, please contact the Cowee Pottery School at contact@coweepotterschool.org